APRIL 2025 ISSUE

WELCOME TO THE A&S NEWSLETTER

Share your news and announcements for an upcoming newsletter

Dear Arts & Sciences community,

This month, we celebrate remarkable faculty and student achievements—from national honors to new publications and events

We hope to see you at the Teaching Excellence Awards Ceremony tonight at 4 p.m. in the SUB, where we'll recognize outstanding faculty across the College. And don't forget to join us on Wednesday (4/16) at 1:30 in SUB Ballroom C for the A&S Spring Town Hall with Provost Holloway and Dean Malat..

□ Celebrating Administrative Professionals Day □

Finally, April 23 is Administrative Professionals Day—thank you to all of our incredible A&S staff. Your care and commitment keep the College running—we're grateful for all you do.

Professor Melissa Emery Thompson Receives Lifetime Honor

Professor and Associate Chair Melissa Emery Thompson (Anthropology) has been named a 2024 Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS).

One of the scientific community's most prestigious honors, the AAAS fellowship recognizes Professor Emery Thompson's 25 years of work using noninvasive and community-centered means to study aging in wild chimpanzee populations in Uganda.

Emery Thompson's work contributes to our understanding of human evolution and has significant implications for the current day, as the global population continues to age at a historic rate.

GOOD NEWS & UPDATES

The Humanities & Interdisciplinary Units: Anna Nogar

I'm excited to share a few recent accomplishments from our humanities and interdisciplinary colleagues—please join me in celebrating them.

- Dr. Nahir I. Otaño Gracia (English) has just published *The Other Faces of Arthur: Chivalric Whiteness in the Global North Atlantic* with the University of Pennsylvania Press. A major milestone—congrats, Nahir!
- Dr. Damián Wilson (Spanish & Portuguese) has been appointed Director of the Center for Regional Studies. We're thrilled to see his leadership guiding CRS into the future.
- Dr. A. Gabriel Meléndez (American Studies, Emeritus) received the 2025 MLA Prize for Studies in Native American Literatures, Cultures, and Languages for *Citizens By Treaty: Texts by Hispanic New Mexicans, 1846–1925*.

The text is available in English and Spanish and is a significant contribution to the field.

Also, congratulations to the Department of Chicano & Chicano Studies for successfully cohosting the 50th convening of the National Association of Chicana and Chicano Studies in Albuquerque last week.

Thank you to all for the incredible work you do across disciplines!

The Social Sciences & Interdisciplinary Units: Keith Hunley

Greetings. Here are a few exciting updates and recognitions from the Anthropology Department:

- Dr. Catherine Rhodes will present her new book, Undoing Modernity: Linguistics, Higher Education and Indigeneity in Yucatan, in a virtual event cohosted by Anthropology and LAll.

□ April 10 | 3:00 p.m.
□ Zoom

- Dr. Heather Edgar has been honored by both the American Academy of Forensic Sciences and the Dental Anthropology Association—well-earned recognition for her contributions to the field.
- Andrew Kennedy, one of our doctoral students, was awarded the Albert A. Dahlberg Prize in Biological Anthropology. This national award recognizes his outstanding scholarship.

Thanks for all you do to advance our disciplines and support one another.

Natural Sciences & Mathematics: Peter Fawcett

This month brings some exciting news from Biology and Earth & Planetary Sciences.

Dr. Syed Mubarak Hussain (Biology) has been awarded the 2025 Society for Developmental Biology \(SDB\) Early Career Investigator Award, a national honor recognizing outstanding research in developmental biology. He was also selected as a 2025 Kavli Fellow by the National Academy—an exceptional achievement.

Dr. Eric Lindsey (Earth & Planetary Sciences) contributed to a recent Washington Post article on what the recent earthquake in Myanmar may mean for California's San Andreas Fault.

Kudos to both!

Research & Graduate Studies: Sharon

Erickson Nepstad

The Research Team is pleased to share these upcoming opportunities and updates for April.

Support for Undergraduate Research

ASSURE—Deadline extended to April 16
$3,200 stipends available for 2025–26 academic year

Do you know a student ready to dive into research? The Arts & Sciences Support for Undergraduate Research Experience (ASSURE) offers yearlong support for undergraduates working with mentors on research.

ASSURE especially encourages applications that:

- Engage early-career (lower-division) students
- Include students from underrepresented backgrounds
- Demonstrate clear outcomes for undergraduate researchers

Each selected student receives $400/month for eight months, totaling $3,200 in direct support. Faculty may submit one primary and one secondary application (funding permitting). Students must apply with a faculty mentor and submit a resource letter outlining project support.

□ Apply by 4/16 via InfoReady: ASSURE Application

Research Development Support

□ Faculty impacted by federal grant closures, including Awards for Faculty at Hispanic-Serving Institutions, are encouraged to contact FRDO (email frdo@unm.edu) for support in finding alternative funding.

Request support early via this FRDO form as the research team is managing a high volume of work.

Support UNM Undergraduate Scholarship

- UROC 2025: Undergraduate Research Opportunity Conference
- April 11 | SUB

Undergraduate Research Opportunity Conference (UROC) provides undergraduate students with a platform to share their research with the UNM community.

Faculty support— through mentorship, judging, and attending— is crucial to the event's success. Please consider dropping in, volunteering, or serving as a mentor in the future.

If you receive notification of a stop work order, termination, or reinstatement of a federal research grant, please:

- Notify the Office of the Vice President for Research AND
- Send the notification to awards@unm.edu and CC Sharon Nepstad (nepstad@unm.edu)

Student Success: Sushilla Knottenbelt

UNM 2040 Goal 2 Fellows Application by April 11

Do you regularly teach a high enrollment general education course and want to explore the full resources of UNM to improve student outcomes?

Consider applying to join the Faculty Student Experience Project (FSEP). This collaborative initiative will support teams of faculty in redesigning general education courses to improve student and faculty experiences.

Participants will receive a $4,000 stipend.

- ☐ Applications are due April 11
- ☐ Questions? Email Pamela Cheek or Sushilla Knottenbelt
- ☐ Learn more + apply

Apply to be a SEP Fellow by April 20

Looking for a lighter lift opportunity to support the students in your class? Learn the foundations of the Student Experience Project with some summer training, a full set of resources and an optional survey tool to help monitor student experience.

- ☐ Applications are due by April 20
- ☐ Learn more + apply.

Apply for Peer Learning Facilitator (PLF) Support for Your Fall Classes by April 11

Looking to create more opportunities for active learning in your classes?

Apply to the Peer Learning Facilitator (PLF) Program to be matched with a trained undergraduate student who can support small-group discussion and in-class engagement for your Fall 2025 class.

Faculty who previously worked with PLFs reported increased:

- Student participation (especially in large or introductory courses)
- Sense of class community

- ☐ Proposals due by April 11 (priority deadline)
- ☐ Questions? Email Tim Schroeder
- ☐ Submit your proposal

Proposals for CAS Assessment Grants Accepted Through 4/18

The College invites proposals from all disciplines for CAS Assessment Grants, which provide up to $2,000 to support teaching goals and advance learning outcomes through innovative assessment approaches.

Grants can support either General Education or Academic Program assessment for undergraduate or graduate degrees.

- ☐ Proposals due by April 18
- ☐ Submit to assessment@unm.edu
- ☐ More details and application material

Why Lecturer Diana Torrez (Sociology) Teaches in TELS Classrooms

I chose to teach in the Learning Studios because the classroom design not only facilitates a student-centered learning environment, but it also increases instructor-student interaction.

Students are aware that their contributions in the classroom are as important to the learning process as the instructors'. Importantly, this form of active learning increases students' achievement of course learning outcomes.
